

FUNDING APPLICATION

NEW FREEDOM PROGRAM

Introduction

The Safe, Accountable, Flexible, Efficient Transportation Equity Act (SAFETEA-LU) created a new funding program, called New Freedom, to encourage services and facility improvements to address the transportation needs of persons with disabilities that go beyond those required by the Americans with Disabilities Act.

The features of the New Freedom Program are:

- Funds are allocated through a formula based upon population of persons with disabilities.
- Allocations go to designated recipients in areas over 200,000, to States for areas under 200,000 and non-urbanized areas; States may transfer funds to urbanized or non-urbanized area programs as long as funds are used for New Freedom Program purposes.
- States and designated recipients must select grantees competitively.
- Matching share requirements are flexible to encourage coordination with other federal programs that may provide transportation, such as Health and Human Services or Agriculture.
- Projects must be included in or consistent with the locally-developed human service transportation coordinated plan
- 10 percent of funds may be used for planning, administration and technical assistance.

The New Freedom Program grew out of the New Freedom Initiative introduced by the Administration under Executive Order 13217, “Community-Based Alternatives for Individuals with Disabilities”. The Order states: “The United States is committed to community-based alternatives for individuals with disabilities and recognizes that such services advance the best interests of the United States” and calls upon the Federal government to assist States and localities to swiftly implement the decision of the United States Supreme Court in Olmstead v. L.C.

Individuals who are transportation-disadvantaged face different challenges in accessing services depending on whether they live in urban, rural, or suburban areas. The geographic dispersion of transportation-disadvantaged populations also creates challenges for human service programs hoping to deliver transportation for their passengers.

Over the years, in response to these challenges, Federal, State and local governments, and community-based organizations created specialized programs to meet particular transportation needs. At the Federal level alone, there are at least 62 separate programs, administered by eight Federal departments, and even more agencies, that provide special transportation services to individuals with disabilities, older adults, and people with low incomes. Most of these are human service programs that fund limited transportation services to provide eligible participants with access to particular services, such as job training, health care, senior centers, or rehabilitation programs.

Funding for the New Freedom Program was first appropriated in FFY 2006. The New Freedom Program is intended to fill the gaps between human service and public transportation services previously available and to facilitate the integration of individuals with disabilities into the workforce and full participation in the community.

The designated recipient of New Freedom funds in urbanized areas over 200,000 in population has the principal authority and responsibility for administering the New Freedom Program. In the Capital District, the “designated recipient” is the Capital District Transportation Authority (CDTA). The designated recipient is responsible for conducting the competitive selection process in cooperation with the Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) and awarding grants to subrecipients.

CDTA’s and CDTC’s responsibilities include:

- a. notifying eligible local entities of funding availability;
- b. developing project selection criteria;
- c. determining applicant eligibility;
- d. conducting the competitive selection process
- e. forwarding an annual program of projects (POP) and grant application to FTA;
- f. ensuring that all subrecipients comply with Federal requirements;
- g. documenting the State’s or designated recipient’s procedures in a State Management Plan or a Program Management Plan as appropriate;
- h. certifying that allocations of grants to subrecipients are distributed on a fair and equitable basis; and
- i. certifying that all projects are derived from a locally developed, coordinated public transit-human services transportation plan developed through a process that consists of representatives of public, private, and non-profit transportation and human services providers with participation by the public.

The New Freedom formula grant program seeks to reduce barriers to transportation services and expand the transportation mobility options available to people with disabilities beyond the requirements of the ADA of 1990.

The Capital District Transportation Committee (CDTC) is the Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) for Albany, Rensselaer, Saratoga and Schenectady Counties. CDTC, with the aid of the Regional Transportation Coordination Committee, has developed the Coordinated Public Transit-Human Services Transportation Plan (CPTHHS) for the Capital District. This plan outlines a vision for improving mobility options for the disabled, aging, and low-income population subgroups living in the region, based on identified needs, gaps and barriers. Selection criteria for this solicitation were developed from the Coordinated Plan and will be used to prioritize project submissions. Those projects that directly address the identified needs, gaps, and barriers in the plan and serve people with disabilities will receive the highest priority for funding. The coordinated plan can be viewed or downloaded from CDTC's website at <http://www.cdtcmpo.org/rtp2030/pubrev/hs-doc.pdf>.

As shown in the table above, the Saratoga Springs urbanized area receives a separate allocation (~$29,000/year) under the New Freedom program, but is covered by the Coordinated Public Transit-Human Services Transportation Plan for the Capital District and is part of this solicitation since the Saratoga Springs Urban Area is part of planning area covered by CDTC, the Metropolitan Planning Organization for the Capital District.

Proposed projects under the New Freedom solicitation, therefore, can be for entire region, using all funds available, or can be tailored to each of the two urbanized areas, as long as the projects are consistent with the locally developed coordinated plan. There is no cap per project submission (beyond the total amount available for the program); however, the evaluation committee reserves the right to approve components of project submissions to ensure that all of the projects funded are the best mix (in terms of meeting goals and objectives of the program and to ensure cost effectiveness.

Eligible Applicants:

New Freedom is a formula grant program. Applicants may include private non-profit organizations, state or local governmental authorities or operators of public transportation services including private operators of public transportation services. The Capital District Transportation Authority (CDTA) is the designated recipient¹ for New Freedom in the Capital District and is an eligible applicant for these funds. Applicants other than the "designated recipient" for New Freedom must enter to an agreement with the designated recipient for funds as a sub-recipient² and must follow all federal reporting and administrative guidelines (see FTA Circular C9045.1 http://www.fta.dot.gov/printer_friendly/leg_reg_6624.html).

Eligible Use of Program Funds:

New Freedom Program funds are available for capital and operating expenses that support new public transportation services beyond those required by the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and new public transportation alternatives beyond those required by the ADA designed to assist individuals with disabilities with accessing transportation services, including transportation to and from jobs and employment support services. For the purpose of the New Freedom Program, "new" service is any service or activity that was not operational on August 10, 2005, and did not have an identified funding source as of August 10, 2005, as evidenced by inclusion in the Transportation Improvement Plan (TIP) or the STIP.

Eligible projects funded with New Freedom funds may continue to be eligible for New Freedom funding indefinitely as long as the project(s) continue to be part of the coordinated plan.

Both new public transportation services and new public transportation alternatives are required to go beyond the requirements of the ADA and must (1) be targeted toward individuals with disabilities; and (2) meet the intent of the program by removing barriers to transportation and assisting persons with disabilities with transportation, including transportation to and from jobs and employment services.

¹ In large urbanized areas over 200,000 in population, the designated recipient is an entity designated, in accordance with the planning process under 49 U.S.C. 5303, 5304, and 5306, by the chief executive officer of a State, responsible local officials, and publicly owned operators of public transportation, to receive and apportion amounts under the New Freedom program that is attributable to a transportation management area.

² Subrecipient: Refers to a State or local governmental authority, non-profit organization, or operator of public transportation services that receive a grant under New Freedom indirectly through a recipient.

Beginning in FFY 2007, all New Freedom projects selected for funding must address needs and/or gaps that were identified the Locally Developed Coordinated Public Transit-Human Services Transportation Plan (<http://www.cdtempo.org/rtp2030/pubrev/hs-doc.pdf>). The Coordinated Public Transit-Human Services Transportation Plan for the Capital District recommends (in its Action Plan) that priority be given to New Freedom projects that “bundle” several years of funds to allow multi-year project proposals and to provide an opportunity for applicants to have an adequate time period to determine project success. The coordinated plan encourages projects that are for operating assistance over capital projects to stretch the funding (operating expenses require a 50/50 match, whereas capital projects require an 80/20 match) and to promote fuller utilization of the existing HSA vehicle inventory. Travel training, mobility management and driver training are also recommendations of the plan and will be given higher consideration in the evaluation process over projects that do not specifically address the needs that have been identified in the coordinated plan.

Eligible Projects:

Projects addressing the needs identified in the coordinated plan will be given higher priority than other proposed projects. For other proposed projects, the applicant must make the case that the projects are consistent with the Coordinated Public Transit-Human Services Transportation Plan for the Capital District. Eligible projects may include, but are not limited to capital, planning, and operating assistance to support activities such as:

- a. New Public Transportation Services Beyond the ADA
- b. Enhancing paratransit beyond minimum requirements of the ADA
- c. Feeder Services
- d. Making accessibility improvements to transit and intermodal stations not designated as key stations
- e. Travel training
- f. Purchasing vehicles to support new accessible taxi, ride sharing, and/or vanpooling programs
- g. Supporting the administration and expenses related to new voucher programs for transportation services offered by human service providers
- h. Supporting new volunteer driver and aide programs
- i. Supporting new mobility management and coordination programs among public transportation providers and other human service agencies providing transportation

The list of eligible activities is intended to be illustrative, not exhaustive. Recipients are encouraged to develop innovative solutions to meet the needs of individuals with disabilities in their communities.

Federal/Local Matching Requirements.

New Freedom funds may be used to finance capital, planning and operating expenses. The Federal share of eligible capital and planning costs may not exceed 80 percent of the net cost of the activity. The Federal share of the eligible operating costs may not exceed 50 percent of the net operating costs of the activity.

The local share of eligible capital costs shall be no less than 20 percent of the net cost of the activity, and the local share for eligible operating costs shall be no less than 50 percent of the net operating costs. All of the local share must be provided from sources other than Federal DOT funds. Some examples of sources of local match which may be used for any or all of the local share include: state or local appropriations; other non-DOT Federal funds; dedicated tax revenues; private donations; revenue from human service contracts; toll revenue credits; and net income generated from advertising and concessions. Non-cash share such as donations, volunteer services, or in-kind contributions is eligible to be counted toward the local match as long as the value of each is documented and supported, represents a cost which would otherwise be eligible under the program, and is included in the net project costs in the project budget.

Income from contracts to provide human service transportation may be used either to reduce the net project cost (treated as revenue) or to provide local match for New Freedom operating assistance. In either case, the cost of providing the contract service is included in the total project cost.

a. Exceptions. The Federal share is 90 percent for vehicle-related equipment and facilities required by the Clean Air Act (CAA) or the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). It is only the incremental cost of the equipment or facility required by the CAA or ADA that may be funded at 90 percent, not the entire cost of the vehicle or facility, even if the vehicle or facility is purchased for use in service required by the ADA or CAA. Designated recipient wishing to apply for assistance at the higher match ratio should consult the FTA regional office for further guidance regarding methods of computing the incremental cost before submitting an application. .

b. Use of Other Federal Funds. Local match may be derived from other Federal programs that are eligible to be expended for transportation, other than funds from DOT programs. Examples of types of programs that are potential sources of local match include: employment, training, aging, medical, community services, and rehabilitation services. To be eligible for local match for FTA funds, the other Federal funds must be used for activities included in the total net project costs of the FTA grant. Expenditure of other Federal funds for transportation outside of the scope of the project cannot be applied as a credit for local match in the FTA grant. Specific program information for other types of Federal funding is available at www.unitedweride.gov.

Administrative Requirements:

The Designated Recipient (CDTA is the designated recipient in the Capital District) and sub-recipients of New Freedom monies allocated to the Capital District must follow the provisions under Department of Transportation (DOT) regulations, “Uniform Administrative Requirements for Grants and Cooperative Agreements to State and Local Governments,” 49 CFR part 18 (sometimes referred to as the “common grant rule” or “common rule”). For private non-profit agencies, grant management requirements are contained in 49 CFR part 19, “Uniform Administrative Requirements for Grants and Agreements with Institutions of Higher Education, Hospitals, and other Non-Profit Organizations.” Applicants other than the “designated recipient” for New Freedom must enter to an agreement with the designated recipient for funds and must follow all federal reporting and administrative guidelines (see FTA Circular C 9045.1, “New Freedom Program guidance and application instructions”).

The designated recipient must enter into a written agreement with each subrecipient stating the terms and conditions of assistance by which the project will be undertaken and completed. Financial records, supporting documentation, and all other records pertinent to a designated recipient must be retained by the designated recipient (and its subrecipients) and must be made readily available to authorized representatives of the DOT and the Comptroller General of the United States for a period of three years from the date the State electronically submits the final Financial Status Report (SF–269A).

All reporting and record keeping guidelines are addressed in the FTA Circular C9045.1 which can be found at http://www.fta.dot.gov/printer_friendly/leg_reg_6624.html

Project Selection:

Projects will be awarded through a competitive selection process. A review committee comprised of staff from CDTC and the Regional Transportation Coordination Committee will review, score and rank the project applications. The list of projects approved by the Regional Transportation Coordination Committee will be submitted to the FTA for funding.
