

In December 2015, the Capital District Transportation Committee (CDTC) made $20,000 available for capacity building projects designed to assist public, private, and non-profit organizations in the Capital Region in providing bicycle and pedestrian safety education training. CDTC received a total of 11 applications requesting about $32,000. An evaluation committee consisting of CDTC staff, Capital District Transportation Authority, New York State Department of Transportation, New York State Department of Health, and a member of the CDTC Bicycle and Pedestrian Advisory Council selected 8 projects, awarding a total of about $19,728. All projects must be completed by December 31, 2016.
